First Sunday of Advent ~ Year A

27 November 2016

Full Initiation into the Catholic Church

Our congratulations are extended to one true gentleman and eight very refined ladies who were received into the Catholic Church on Friday 18 November. Over a period of about five months, a course of preparation was provided to allow adults to learn a little more about the Catholic faith. As a parish we acknowledge this life changing experience for the people involved.

In-service ~ Acolytes, Readers & Special Ministers of Holy Communion

3 December

The in-service for acolytes, readers and special ministers of Holy Communion will be held this coming Saturday 3 December. The morning will begin at 9.40AM with morning tea, and the formalities beginning at 10.00AM. There will be a break for refreshments late morning, with the in-service coming to completion about 12.15PM.

Father Sean Cullen, parish priest in Southern Highlands will be presenting on the day.

For those planning to attend the in-service next Saturday 3 December, please contact the parish office to register this week on 4655 8797 or camden@dow.org.au.

Advent & Christmas Reflections

Emmanuel daily Advent and Christmas Reflections for 2016 are now available for purchase for just $2.00. These booklets are of special benefit for those who like to dedicate a little time in daily prayer and prepare for Christmas in a more spiritual way. Stocks are limited so be quick as these are very sort after publications and always sell out. The booklets can be found on the end of the altar servers pew after Mass.
