Prayer in Time of Great Need

Heavenly Father, who always listens compassionately to your people in distress, we humbly beseech you to bring relief to our human family. We offer our prayer that viral afflictions will be contained, that vaccines will be developed, that the sick will recover, and that those who have died will receive a merciful judgement. And may our faith and trust in your divine providence be strengthened continually in every trial and tribulation.
