Dear Parishioners at Camden and The Oaks

TRINITY SUNDAY - 11TH/12TH JUNE 2022

Pastoral Insight

“The episode of the 10 Lepers”, the Pope said, “divides the world in two: those who do not give thanks and those who do; those who take everything as if it is owed them, and those who welcome everything as a gift, as grace.”

The Catechism says, “Every event and need can become an offering of thanksgiving.”

Hence, the Pope said, the prayer of thanksgiving always begins with recognizing that “grace precedes us”.

- “We were thought of before we learned how to think;
- we were loved before we learned how to love;
- we were desired before our hearts conceived a desire.”

“If we view life like this,” he pointed out, “then ‘thank you’ becomes the driving force of our day.”

And so special thanks are extended to all who participate so generously in the life of the parish, especially financially.

We thank the musicians, choristers, vocalists, servers, readers, special ministers, sacristans, church wardens, computer operators, welcomers. And we thank all who have a regular presence at Mass.

We thank all who have such an invaluable midweek presence from cleaners to gardeners to money counters. Everyone. So grateful.

Confirmation Programme

Books can be collected this week from the sanctuary in the book church after Mass. If stamped, everything is ok and the provisional allocation to the Confirmation ceremony can be regarded as confirmed.

If not already having been done, please complete a form to provide details of Confirmation name and sponsor.

Father Michael would like to talk to the children for a few moments after Mass.

Contact List for Oakdale Lectors

The contact listing for those parishioners who volunteer to read at Mass on Saturday evenings at Saint Joseph the Worker Oakdale has been misplaced. If in the past or if you are wanting to volunteer to become a reader could you please fill in the new form that is placed at the back of the church or alternatively contact the Parish office on 4655 8797 to register your contact details. Going forward the office will keep a computer copy of the list so that this should not happen again.
